v.

DENNIS J. HULETT, et al

Defendants.

Civil No. 13-CV-462-CVE-FHM

DEFENDANTS HULETT RESPONSE TO THE COUNTERCLAIM OF THE OKLAHOMA TAX COMMISSION

Comes now Defendants Dennis J. Hulett and Ada Hulett (hereinafter referred to jointly as Defendants Hulett), filing for ourselves presently without legal representation, and in response to the Counterclaim of the Defendant Oklahoma Tax Commission would show the Court as follows:

1. Defendants Hulett maintain that the tax warrant filings of the Oklahoma Tax Commission (the OTC) are for estimated tax filings for the business Bankruptcy Law Center which was out of business and with no employees for the periods claimed by the OTC and wishes to present evidence to the Court fort its position, and demands that the OTC in turn presents proof supporting its claim that the tax warrants filed were legal and valid in all aspects.

Defendants Hulett request that this Court examine all evidence to consider what parts of the counterclaim of the OTC are valid and prior to the claim of the IRS, reducing any part of the OTC's claim which was incorrectly assessed at the time.

Respectfully submitted this 30th day of September, 2013.
